

case study blatchford

Blatchford is recognised internationally as a leader in Artificial Limb Technology supply artificial limbs to British amputees. In addition Blatchford provides the prosthetics service to injured soldiers for the Ministry of Defence.

“acs produced 3d plans of how our offices would look, helping us to make the most of the space available in our building. They met our timescales and provided an excellent service that exceeded our expectations.”

Keith Hoole,
Operations Director

acs were asked to draw up plans for the Northampton and Kettering clinics. As an NHS supplier The project which included the provision of furniture and full interiors had to be DDA compliant and meet the high standards of a clinical workspace.

industry and size

Prosthetic service, 250 UK employees.

challenge

To accommodate new offices near Northampton and Kettering General Hospitals.

solution

To install treatment rooms and clinical areas, along with creating DDA compliant reception areas and door systems.

acs | acs house, oxwich close, brackmills, northampton, nn4 7bh freephone 0500 715110 email info@acs365.co.uk web www.acs365.co.uk