

case study

signs express northampton

Through more than 20 years of sustained growth, Signs Express has developed into the largest sign company in the UK and Ireland - with more centres than any other business in the industry. Signs Express specialise in vehicle graphics, large exterior corporate signage and sign systems to window manifestations. To support continued growth, the Northampton Branch needed to move to new premises and turned to acs for assistance.

“We chose to use acs as we required high quality work with minimal hassle. The acs team were competent, attentive and were able to do the job on time, safely and to a high standard.”

Mark Meadowcroft,
Managing Director

acs's workplace team provided a complete solution at Signs Express's state of the art Brackmills office, supplying air conditioning, partitioning, furniture, showers, toilets and flooring. The project was completed on time and within budget, giving Signs Express the space and environment needed to continue to grow their business.

industry and size

Signage, 6 employees.

challenge

To move to bigger premises utilising the space for vehicle signage, printing and a general office.

solution

Using partitioning to create the desired environments, space was then created to accommodate vehicles for sign application.
